Membership Details

The Network Theatre Company is an amateur theatre company which stages its own productions in its own theatre, The Network Theatre, which is located under the arches of Waterloo Station, London. It is a private members club, licensed for regulated entertainment and the supply of alcohol through a Club Premises Certificate issued under the Licensing Act 2003.

To apply for individual membership please complete the attached Membership Application. You do not need to audition for membership.

Under the Licensing Act 2003 there is a mandatory minimum two day delay between receipt of your application and your admission as a member, and we must reserve the right to refuse any application. You must be aged 18 years or over.

Membership lasts 12 months, starting from the month of enrolment, and you may apply for renewal annually.

You may apply for one of the two types of Membership explained below:

Full Membership at £100

During the period of your membership:

- You can participate in all Network Theatre Company productions subject to audition or invitation from the Director.
- You can attend all Network Theatre Company Play Readings free of charge.
- You will be entitled to concession rates at certain Network Theatre Company Special Events.
- You will receive, by post, one copy of each Network Theatre Company Newsletter published.

Basic Membership at £25

During the period of your membership:

- You can only perform in a Network Theatre Company production by payment of an additional participation fee for each production subject to maximum of £100 in any membership year, and subject to audition or invitation from the Director.
Participation fees are typically £25 for cast and £10 for backstage and technical crew.
- You can attend all Network Theatre Company Play Readings free of charge.
- You will receive, by post, one copy of each Network Theatre Company Newsletter published.

In summary:

- Full Membership £100
- Basic Membership £25 plus £10 to £25 per production up to a maximum of £100
