Membership Details

Network Theatre Company (“the Company”) is an amateur theatre company which stages productions in its own theatre (Network Theatre) located under the arches of Waterloo Station.

Anyone can audition for a Company production, provided that you are over 18 and already a member of the Network Theatre Company, or become a member at the audition. If you are cast you must also pay any applicable participation fees (currently £40 in January 2024).

So your total financial commitment is £40 for current members and £50 for new members.

Payment of these fees are a legal requirement and you may not be protected by our insurance should the fees not be paid. These fees are due before the first rehearsal (which includes any table reading) and can be paid via our website: membership.networktheatre.org.

If you wish to pay by any other means please e-mail: membership@networktheatre.org .

Membership means you can participate in as many Company productions as you like as well as all our other activities. It also entitles you to vote at our Annual General Meeting.

Image Rights

The Company may use photographs and other media containing your likeness:

- a) for the purposes of managing the audition process, in which case such images will be irrevocably deleted upon completion of the process; and
- b) to promote the production, which may include, but not be limited to, publication via internet (including social media), print and broadcast media, in which case, by agreeing to participate in this production, you accept that your image may form part of this promotion.

Further, you acknowledge the rights of the creators of such media and agree not to infringe their rights of ownership either by common law or by statute.

Data privacy and retention

The information you provide on this form will be used for the process of conducting the auditions only and upon completion will be deleted and destroyed. For further details on the Company’s privacy policy please see: <https://www.networktheatre.org/privacy/>
